DETAILED ACTION

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1, 2, 5, 6 and 10 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over Claims 12, 17, 18 and 22 of the now allowed copending divisional Application No. 10/981,574. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims as amended in the two applications are both directed to a combined microwave oven with a toaster comprising a heater, input for selecting a toaster function defining the food type and desired toasting level, a memory storing a voltage level as a function of the heater and the toaster function, a temperature sensor for sensing the inside of the toaster, a time counter for measuring the amount of time that has elapsed since the previous toaster operation and a microcomputer for controlling a heating time period by combining a first, a seconds and a third time period (compare, claim 2 with claim 12 of the divisional application). Similarly, the method recited in claims 5-7 and 10 are also directed to a method of operating a combined toaster and a microwave oven having substantially the same steps as claimed in claims 17, 18 and 22 of the divisional application. In view of the overlapping subject matter as now claimed in this application and the parent application, the species election requirement mailed 9-10-2004 is hereby withdrawn.

Furthermore, the claims in this application is broader in scope than the now allowed copending application as it does not require that the voltage be set by the manufacturer as recited in the claims of the copending application.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

3. Claims 4 and 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. However, it is pointed out that this objection would be removed upon the filing of a terminal disclaimer.
